Mr. Levi Greenleaf Leeman (born Nov. 18, 1809) is the oldest inmate in years, and Mr. Jesse Ellis Razee (admitted Oct. 18, 1875) is the senior in residence.

Outside aid has also been given during the year to nine aged men from the sum of $1,000 placed in the Directors' hands for distribution by the New England Trust Company, trustee of the Edward Austin Fund, as follows: (1) George M. Bird, (2) Charles P. Burditt, (3) Joseph W. Fowler, (4) Benjamin F. Gleason, (5) Edward Pearl, (6) George R. Sandison, (7) Israel P. Trask, (8) Charles DeWitt Lane, (9) William H. Holland.

The Report of the Treasurer shows that the net income for the year has been $29,673.59, that the expenses of maintaining the Home have been $18,984.86, and that the amount paid to outside beneficiaries has been $11,435. There is included in the income the sum of $1,650 received from the estate of Elisha V. Ashton; also, the sum of $1,000 from the estate of Robert B. Brigham.

On Thanksgiving Day the bountiful dinner supplied by the fund given by our late President, Hon. Peter C. Brooks, was heartily enjoyed.

The Sturtevant & Haley Corporation supplied the poultry for the Christmas dinner, thus kindly following the custom of Messrs. Sturtevant and Haley. The gift was much appreciated.

To the clergymen who have so kindly officiated at our religious services, Revs. Charles E. Davis, Christopher R. Eliot, James Reed, Henry T. Secrist, E. H. Johnson, and F. H. Rowley, we are greatly indebted.

The music for Sunday services and for funerals has been finely rendered by the young people from Grove Hall Universalist Church, through the kind efforts of Mrs. Alice Joy Mason.

During the year we have lost one of our Directors, Dr. John Homans, 2d, who was also Physician to the Home.

At the meeting of the Directors of July 21 the following tribute to him was placed on the Records:—

Since the last regular meeting of the Directors the Home for Aged Men has met with a great loss in the death of Dr. John Homans, 2d, who died at his home in this city on May 4, 1902.

He was Assistant Physician for the years 1884, 1885, and 1886; and, after the death of his father, Dr. Charles D. Homans (whose gratuitous services to the Home for twenty-two years will be pleasantly remembered), he was elected Physician, Jan. 17, 1887, and so continued till his death.

He was elected a Director in January, 1888, and in the same year commenced his continuous service on the Executive Committee.

During all these years he discharged his various official duties with great cheerfulness, promptitude, and faithfulness. He was highly esteemed by the inmates, and both in his professional and personal intercourse with them he showed an interest which was gratefully appreciated and spoken of by them during his life, and marked by their evident sorrow at the time of his death.

His relations with the Directors were most agreeable. They will miss him in their counsels, and retain a very pleasant remembrance of his genial manners and earnest interest in everything which related to the good conduct of the Home's affairs.

The institution will have other Directors and physicians, but none who will feel a deeper interest in it or whose worth and work will contribute more to the welfare of this charity, to which he so long and with such disinterested devotion contributed his time and skill.

This tribute is to be inserted in the Records, and a copy sent to the family of Dr. Homans, extending to them the deep sympathy of both the Directors and inmates in the loss which they have sustained.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Charles D. Homans, his mother, we have been enabled to place a fine likeness of Dr. Homans in the Directors' Room.

Since the last meeting of the Directors we regret to report the death on Dec. 16, 1902, of Miss Katherine A. Mallory, Superintendent of the Home. Miss Mallory was first elected in November, 1889; and during her service of thirteen years she filled this difficult position most acceptably. In all her relations with the inmates she was friendly and sympathetic, firm and judicious: in conducting the Home, she had a careful oversight of all details, was an excellent steward and efficient housekeeper. The Directors wish to testify to her faithfulness in all matters relating to the Home, and to the pleasant relations always existing between them and the Superintendent.

During the Superintendent's illness the Directors were fortunate to secure the services of her sister, Miss Helen L. Mallory; and, now that she has consented to remain as Superintendent, the Directors are confident that the excellent internal management of the Home will be continued.

The inmates have been kindly remembered by many friends who have sent to the Home clothing, fruit, vegetables, and various serviceable articles. Several publishers have sent their papers, the Young Men's Christian Union and the Young Men's Christian Association have aided us in various ways, and the proprietors of the Boston Theatre have given passes to the performances. The Directors wish to thank each and all of these friends for the interest taken in the Home.

During the year 1902 the Home has been full, and the general health of the inmates has been good. While there have been this year no extraordinary repairs undertaken, the buildings have been kept in the usual good and attractive condition. The Directors have expended on outside aid as large a sum as they deemed their means justified; but they hope for such increase in gifts and donations as will enable them to extend and broaden this branch of the work, which experience has proved to be a most important and practical form of charity to aged men.

They shall be chosen by ballot at each Annual Meeting, and shall hold their offices for one year and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead. Two of the Directors shall be chosen at the Annual Meeting to audit the Treasurer's Account for the ensuing year.

Annual Meeting.

ART. III. The Annual Meeting of the Corporation shall be held on the second Monday of January, in every year, at such place and hour as the Directors may order; and notice of said meeting shall be given by publishing the same in one or more newspapers in the city of Boston three days at least before said meeting. The Directors may call special meetings of the Corporation whenever in their opinion it is expedient, and shall do so upon the request in writing of five members of the Corporation.

Home and Beneficiaries.

ART. IV. A suitable building or buildings, to be known as the Home for Aged Men, shall be provided for the reception of respectable aged and indigent men not otherwise provided for, into which may be admitted such persons, coming under the above designation, as the Directors shall from time to time determine, upon such terms and conditions as they may deem proper and expedient. The Directors may, if they deem it expedient, aid beneficiaries at their own homes.

Directors' Meetings.

ART. V. Meetings of the Directors shall be held on the third Monday of January, April, July, and October in each year, at such place and hour as they shall determine; and Special Meetings shall be called by the Clerk at any time upon the written order of the President or upon that of any three Directors.

Seven members present at any meeting shall constitute a quorum. The Directors are authorized to fill for the remainder of the current year vacancies in any of the offices provided for in Article II.

Presiding Officer.

ART. VI. The President shall preside at the meetings, when present. In his absence, a Vice-President or senior member of the Board present shall preside.

Treasurer.

ART. VII. The Treasurer shall have the custody of all moneys, bonds, deeds, and securities belonging to the Corporation, which he shall keep, manage, and invest, under the direction and control of the Board of Directors or their committee appointed for the purpose. He shall pay no money but upon the order of the Board of Directors or of their committee duly authorized. He shall, with the written approval of the President of the Corporation and the Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board of Directors, receive and receipt for all bequests, devises, and legacies given to the Corporation, and shall, when requisite and with such approval as aforesaid, sign such papers as may be legal, necessary, and proper in the premises. At the Annual Meeting he shall render a statement in detail of his receipts and disbursements made up to the thirty-first day of December, inclusive in each year, with a statement of the property belonging to the Cor-

He shall record in a book kept for the purpose abstracts of the wills of persons deceased, so far as they relate to bequests to the "Home for Aged Men."

Clerk.

ART. VIII. The Clerk shall notify and attend all meetings of the Corporation, of the Directors and Executive Committee, and shall keep a record of the doings of each, with the names of the members present, and shall notify the members of the Visiting Committee of their term of service.

Directors.

ART. IX. The Directors shall have the entire charge of the Home and of the general business and property of the Corporation, and of the admission and discharge of inmates. They may perform the duties required of them by Committees chosen from their own number, and during the intervals of their meetings may act by an Executive Committee. They shall have the power to enter into and bind the Corporation by such contracts as they may deem advantageous. They may appoint all proper and necessary officers, assistants, and servants for the management and care of the Home and beneficiaries, with such salaries and allowances as they may from time to time fix and determine, and may remove the same at pleasure; and make all such rules and regulations for their own government, and for the government of such officers, assistants, and servants, for the admission, confirmation, discharge, removal, control, and care of inmates, and the well ordering and conducting of the respective departments of the Home as to them may seem proper and expedient: provided, however, that the said rules and regulations may be altered or amended by the Corporation at their Annual Meeting or at any legal meeting especially called for the purpose. They shall manage, invest, and dispose of the property of the Corporation, and shall receive and collect donations and bequests; but no sale or transfer of any of the property, and no payment of money from the treasury, shall be made without their order or that of a committee duly authorized by them.

They shall cause a complete record of all their doings to be kept, which shall be laid before the Corporation whenever required; and, at every Annual Meeting, they shall make a written report on the Treasurer's Accounts and on the general state of the Home, comprising a statement of the number of inmates and beneficiaries at the commencement of the year, number admitted, died, left, or discharged, and the number remaining, with an account of the receipts and expenditures of each department; and for this purpose they shall, at a previous meeting, appoint a Committee of their own number.

Donations and Bequests.

ART. X. All sums received by the Corporation as donations or bequests, unless the donor or testator shall otherwise prescribe, and all collections, including annual and other subscriptions, may be applied to the current expenses of the Corporation or to increase the permanent fund, at the discretion of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. Any amendment of these By-laws, proposed at a meeting of the Corporation, may be adopted at a subsequent meeting, and not otherwise.

Order of Business.

ART. II. The first business in order shall be the reading of the records of the previous meeting. Reports of Committees shall be next in order, and thereafter any other business may come before the Board.

Standing Committees, Superintendent, and Physician.

ART. III. At the first meeting after the annual meeting, the following-named Standing Committees shall be elected: namely, an Executive Committee, a Committee on Admission, on Finance, on Religious Services, and such other Committees as the Board may deem expedient. A Superintendent and a Physician shall be elected at this meeting.

Chairman and Reports of Committees.

ART. IV. The first-named member on a Committee shall be Chairman, and reports of Committees shall be submitted in writing.

Executive Committee.

ART. V. The Executive Committee shall have the general charge of the affairs of the Home, except as otherwise provided herein, during the interval between the regular quarterly meetings of the Directors, and act in their behalf. They shall meet at the Home on the first Monday of every month, and some one of them shall visit it at least once a week. They shall keep a record of their proceedings, which shall be laid before the Directors at their quarterly meetings. They shall make or authorize all purchases for the Home, and shall examine and approve all bills before payment by the Treasurer.

Committee on Admission.

ART. VI. The Committee on Admission shall visit or confer with each applicant for admission or relief, inquire into his circumstances and character, and make a full report of all the material facts in each case. The Directors alone shall decide upon the admission or relief of applicants. The Committee shall keep a register, in which shall be entered the names of applicants, their respective ages, place of birth and residence, by whom recommended, date of application, the decision of the Directors thereon, and such other facts as they may deem important; and they shall assign to inmates their rooms.

Finance Committee.

ART. VII. The Finance Committee shall have the general charge and direction of all matters connected with the money, mortgages, and other securities belonging to the Home, and shall direct the Treasurer in the disposition of the same.

Committee on Religious Services.

ART. VIII. The Committee on Religious Services shall, as often as practicable, supply the Home with preaching on Sundays. They shall make such regulations in regard to the same and to other religious services as they may deem expedient.

Superintendent.

ART. IX. The Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee, shall have charge of the house, and shall strictly obey and enforce the rules and regulations of the Directors. Order, neatness, and good conduct must prevail throughout the Home.

The Superintendent shall have the care of, and be responsible for, all supplies furnished for the use of the family; shall be present at meals, see that they are properly served, that suitable food is provided for the sick, proper order is observed at table, a blessing asked before each meal; and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates. At each monthly meeting of the Executive Committee, the Superintendent shall present, in writing, a statement of the supplies required, with a report of the condition of the Home and its inmates, and such other matters as may be important. Improper conduct of any of the inmates shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

The Superintendent shall keep a book in which shall be recorded a list of the furniture, linen, and other articles belonging to the Home, which list shall be corrected annually in the month of December, and laid before the Corporation at its annual meeting in January.

Presents, other than money, shall be entered, with the name of the donor, in a book kept for the purpose by the Superintendent.

Beneficiaries.

ART. X. SECT 1. Every applicant must furnish satisfactory testimonials of the respectability of his character, and freely communicate all facts necessary to a proper understanding of his case.

SECT. 2. In no case whatever shall any person be placed on the list of beneficiaries but those who are natives of the United States of America, are at least fifty-five years of age, and have resided in Boston during the ten years next preceding their application for relief, unless by the unanimous vote of all the Directors present, the number present being not less than nine; but at any meeting a beneficiary who required a vote of nine Directors to place him on the outside list may be transferred to the Home by the unanimous vote of all the Directors present.

SECT. 3. Each beneficiary when first admitted shall be upon probation for the term of six months. After the expiration of said term, the Directors shall, as they deem expedient, dismiss or confirm the applicant as a permanent inmate of the Home. Any person admitted to the Home, who does not avail himself of the privilege within thirty days from the date of his admission, may, at the option of the Executive Committee, forfeit the right to enter the Home.

SECT. 4. Persons not confirmed as permanent inmates shall be refunded the balance of the admission fee paid by them, after deducting therefrom a reasonable amount for the time they have remained in the Home, as a compensation for their board.

SECT. 5. Every inmate must obey the rules and regulations of the Corporation and of the Directors.

SECT. 6. The Directors in all cases reserve the right to dismiss and expel from the Home any inmate who shall violate any of the rules, or whom, from any other cause, they may deem not to be a proper object of this charity; admissions to the Home not being permanent, but only during the good behavior of the inmates and the pleasure of the Directors. Notice of the intention to dismiss and expel an inmate shall be given in the call for the meeting when such action is to be taken.

SECT. 7. Beneficiaries aided out of the Home may be stricken from the list, or the amount of relief modified at any time, by vote of the Directors.

SECT. 8. The Directors shall from time to time fix the terms of admission to the Home. Unless otherwise ordered, one hundred and fifty dollars shall be the fee for admission in each case.

SECT. 9. Furniture and other articles brought into the Home, by or for permanent inmates, must remain for the benefit and use of the Home. Beneficiaries who have property must secure the same to the Corporation before admission; and, in case of money or other property coming into their possession after their admission, by inheritance, bequest, or otherwise, if they continue as an inmate of the Home, they must make the same over to the Corporation, upon the demand of the Directors.

SECT. 10. Any inmate desirous, for any cause, to leave the Home, is at liberty to depart. Should he leave within six months from his admission as a permanent inmate, the entrance money which has been paid on his account shall be returned, after deducting a reasonable amount for his support while in the Home. Should he have made over any property to the Corporation, the said property or the amount of the proceeds of the same shall be paid to him, after deducting his board for the time he has been in the Home; but, after once leaving, he cannot return as an inmate, unless by vote of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. These By-laws may be altered or amended at any legal meeting of the Directors, provided that, in the notices calling said meeting, it shall have been stated that an alteration or amendment is to be made.

HOUSE RULES.

1. The entire care of the house shall be in charge of the Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee.

2. The Superintendent shall strictly obey and enforce the rules, and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates; who, on their part, shall pay strict obedience to all rules and regulations, and treat the Directors, Visitors, Superintendents, Assistants, and each other with becoming respect, and by gentlemanly conduct at all times, and by acts of courtesy and forbearance, endeavor to make a happy household.

3. Every inmate, except in case of sickness, is expected to attend all religious services.

4. Breakfast at seven one-half o'clock; dinner at one o'clock; supper at six o'clock.

5. A general table will be provided for the inmates, at which all who are able must attend punctually, and endeavor, by order and genial intercourse, to make such occasions seasons of agreeable recreation. No article of food or drink, except as provided in the diet list or ordered by the Physician, shall be used in the house, unless by permission of the Superintendent.

6. The Superintendent will preside at the table, and ask a blessing before each meal.

7. Those confined to their rooms by illness will be furnished with sick-diet, under the direction of the Physician and the Superintendent.

8. All that is necessary for the comfortable support of the inmates will be provided by the Corporation. No inmate therefore will be permitted to solicit assistance for himself or others, unless by special permit of the Executive Committee.

9. Every inmate must make himself useful in any way that his services may be available for the benefit of the Home, at the discretion of the Superintendent.

10. No intoxicating drinks or strong stimulant shall be used in the house, except by order of the Physician, when it shall be administered by the Superintendent or Nurse.

11. No tobacco smoking will be allowed except in the room provided for that purpose.

12. Inmates will not be allowed to enter the kitchen, store-room, or other offices of the house, unless by consent of the Superintendent; and they are also expected to pay a due regard to the privacy of each other's rooms.

13. No inmate will be permitted to interfere with or find fault with the assistants or servants. If they have cause for complaint, they must, in the first place, state their grievance to the Superintendent; if not remedied, they can appeal to the Executive Committee.

14. The assistants and servants will at all times be required to treat the inmates with becoming kindness, forbearance, and respect; to be courteous to all visitors, and strictly comply with the rules of the house.

15. No inmate or person employed in the house will be permitted to be out after ten o'clock P.M., at which hour the doors will be closed for the night.

16. The Superintendent must see that all unnecessary fires and lights are extinguished by ten o'clock at night.

17. Inmates should make it known to the Superintendent when they are going out.

18. Any one desiring to visit his friends must obtain leave of the Superintendent, whom he shall inform of the place where he intends to stay and the probable length of his visit. The time of making visits, as well as their frequency, is left to the discretion of the Superintendent.

19. The friends of inmates and the public generally may visit the house only on Wednesdays and Saturdays, from nine to eleven o'clock A.M. and from three to five P.M., unless by a permit from one of the Directors.

20. To preserve order and harmony in the family, entire obedience must be paid to all the rules and regulations adopted for the government of the Home. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent to admonish the inmates for any violation of the same; and, if repeated, the Superintendent shall prefer a complaint to the Executive Committee, to take such action as they may deem expedient. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be necessary to the validity of a vote of removal by the Directors.

The certificate of the Physician of the Home, that the mental and physical condition of the applicant is such as to entitle him to be an inmate, is required before admission.

21. Inmates shall not engage in any employment or occupation except by the consent of the Executive Committee, and under their direction; and those earning money under such permission must pay the same to said Committee at their next succeeding meeting, to be expended for the benefit of the party earning the same, at the discretion of said Committee.

22. These rules may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Directors.

APPENDIX.

HOME FOR AGED MEN, BOSTON, Dec. 16, 1902.

Resolutions concerning the loss to us of our late Superintendent, Miss Katherine A. Mallory: —

Resolved, That with feelings of the deepest sorrow and regret we, the inmates of the Home, have this day received intelligence of the passing away forever from our midst to the HIGHER LIFE beyond of our late worthy Superintendent and greatly esteemed friend, Miss Katherine A. Mallory. And we take this opportunity to give expression to our high appreciation of her many virtues, and the sterling qualities of mind and heart which she has brought to the management and discharge of the arduous duties and responsibilities pertaining to the position in this institution, which she has so ably and acceptably filled, with credit to herself and to the satisfaction of all. And her universal urbanity, dignity, impartiality, cheerfulness, patience, forbearance, and ever kindly and courteous treatment of us have endeared her to us all, and won from us sentiments and feelings toward her of the warmest friendship, most affectionate regard, and lasting gratitude. And, although the sound of her cheerful voice will no more be heard at our daily meals, and the presiding chair will no longer be graced and honored by her presence, we shall always hold her in grateful remembrance; and she will ever retain a bright and prominent position among the pleasant memories connected with our sojourn in the HOME.

Resolved, That we cordially tender to her bereaved sister, and the large circle of her friends, our warmest sympathies and condolence in their bereavement, and heartily unite with them in their expressions of grief for the loss of a never-to-be-forgotten and faithful friend and associate.

Her sufferings o'er, she has passed to her rest,
 Freed from pain and from every care.
 To a bright, new HOME, in the LAND OF THE BLEST,
 She will welcome us all, over there.
